

Dear FCC, Democracy requires a free and open media in order to operate. The proposed rule changes allowing greater concentration of media ownership inhibit competition and thus the activity and intensity of the media's reporting. That is bad for democracy, and I oppose the proposed rule changes allowing for greater media concentration. Thank you. David Miller